

The work consists of information about standardized tests of mobility in stroke patients in physiotherapy. The teoretical part contains information about stroke, the most of the teoretical part is focused on mobility, control of mobility and evaluation of mobility disorders by ICF in stroke patients. There is overview of standardization of tests, standardized tests of mobility include overview of sources with information about standardized tests of mobility. The practical part contains 5 standardized tests of walking, that are applied in the examination of the one stroke patient. These tests are: 6 Minute Walk Test, 10 Meter Walk Test, Dynamic Gait Index, Tinetti Performance Oriented Mobility Assessment (POMA) – Gait Test and The Activities-specific Balance Condidence (ABC) Scale.